

Focus curriculum renewal efforts with professional literacy audit services.

Examine Literacy Practices

Gretchen Courtney & Associates, Ltd., has years of experience and expertise to bring to the literacy audit process. In-depth auditing of literacy practices is essential for developing and maintaining effective literacy programs. Each audit contains detailed performance ratings and precise recommendations providing the foundation for informed, data-driven decisions. Our research-supported interactive audit is the starting point for the most cost effective way to maximize all students' literacy potential.

Gretchen Courtney & Associates, Ltd.
Literacy Engineering Firm

9 South 3rd Street • St. Charles, IL 60174
630-377-6794 phone • 630-587-0524 fax
gcourtneyassoc@sbcglobal.net

LITERACY AUDIT

Professional literacy audits by Gretchen Courtney & Associates, Ltd. examine five critical components; instructional delivery and content, materials, struggling learner support, administrative support, and assessment.

Instructional Delivery and Content

Materials

Struggling Learner Support

Assessment

Administrative Support

Call today to learn more about Gretchen Courtney & Associates, Ltd.'s innovative literacy audit.

Audit Process

1. Off Site Review

Mandated and local assessment data
Curriculum materials review
Staff/student survey

2. Site Visit

Classroom observations
Interviews

3. Written Audit

Performance ratings
Comprehensive program analysis
Rationale and recommendations