

Literacy to Last a Lifetime

Living in the twenty-first century requires an expanding set of literacy skills. Improving literacy instruction includes knowledge of how current research impacts instruction and curricular decisions. In order to have both immediate and long-lasting effects on student achievement, Gretchen Courtney & Associates, Ltd. provides both focused short-term staff development and comprehensive long-term relationships with school districts across North America.

Improving student achievement begins with an investment in your greatest resource, teachers.

Gretchen Courtney & Associates, Ltd.
Literacy Engineering Firm

9 South 3rd Street • St. Charles, IL 60174
630-377-6794 phone • 630-587-0524 fax
gcourtneyassoc@sbcglobal.net

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Professional Development Possibilities

- Teacher training
- Administrative support
- Review of research
- Staff development planning
- Curriculum development
- Mentoring services
- Parent workshops
- Classroom demonstrations

Workshop Topics

Reading

- Comprehension
- Vocabulary
- Balanced reading
- Fluency
- Phonological awareness
- Content area reading
- ISAT preparation/Extended response to reading

Writing

- Narrative
- Expository
- Persuasive
- Voice in writing

Call today to learn more about Gretchen Courtney & Associates, Ltd.'s professional development programs.

Additional Services

- Professional audits
- Leadership courses

